TROOPS INACTIVE MAYBE FOR MONTHS

Reported General Nikolai May Succeed General Kuropatkin.

Russians Accuse the Japs of Using the Red Cross Flag Contrary to Law.

BOTH SIDES ARE RESTING UP

London, Sept. 15.—Inactivity of the opposing armies of Russia and Japan continues and no fighting of a general character is reported. Information confirmed from an authoritative source in St.
Petersburg is that the Russians will winter at Hailu, but the fact that there probably will be two months of good weather for military operations before extreme cold weather sets in leaves room for a revision of this purpose in the light of events that may transpire.
The Japanese are reported to be collecting taxes and otherwise administering affairs in Manchuria, as though the country were conquered territory.

JAPS EVACUATE LAO YANG.
St. Petersburg, Sept. 15.—A Mukden dispatch says that according to Chinese advice the evacuation of Lao Yang by the Japanese was forced, owing to the fearful stench arising from the dead bodies. Kuraki is now going east.

VIOLATE RED CROSS.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—A communication has been received by the Russian consul here from Gen. Haisch, chief of the Red Cross at Port Arthur, requesting that it be made public. The general charges the Japanese with gross violation of the Red Cross. He says on Japanese dead have been found notes written in Russian requesting their bodies be buried, but when Russian burial parties attempted to fulfill the requests they were fired on. Such instances, Gen. Haisch adds, are numerous and the Russians are now afraid to trust the Red Cross flag. He states that the Japanese also protect movements of their troops
by unlawful use of the Red Cross flag.

GEN. NICK NIKOLAI.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 15.—There are rumors afloat to the effect that Gen.
Nicholas Nikolaevitch, inspector of cavalry, may supersede Gen. Kuropatkin at the front. Nikolaevitch has a great fighting record, made during the Turkish war. The reports, however, may possibly be only idle gossip.

SIX MILES ADVANCE.

Berlin, Sept. 15.—Col. Gadeke, the war correspondent of the Tagblatt, telegraphing to his paper from Tie Pass (district) (Wednesday) morning, says: "The Russian army is disposed south of this point.
The Japanese have advanced only about six miles north of Lao Yang."

HURIED 3,000 RUSSIANS.

Tokio, Sept. 15.—Field Marshal Oyama reports under today's date that the Russian position in the direction of Mukden is unchanged, and adds: "We buried thirty-one hundred Russians at Lao Yang."

STOPPED SHIP.

Aigles, Sept. 15.—The Russian warship Terek stopped the British steamer Tribert near Gibraltar and examined her papers.

TWO DEAD SUFFOCATED IN A BURNING HOUSE.

Warren, O., Sept. 15.—The house of Warren Clark, a farmer, was burned to the ground this morning. Clark and his son Louis suffocated, being unable to escape from the upper rooms. Five other members of the family escaped.

DANGEROUS MAN

ANARCHIST ARRESTED WITH TEN
DYNAMITE CARTRIDGES.

Madrid, Sept. 15.—The police arrested today a well-known and dangerous anarchist named Flores, who arrived in Madrid from Paris for the purpose of assassinating Premier Maura. Ten dynamite cartridges and compromising documents were found on his person.

PADUCAH NOW HAS ELEVEN CARRIERS

Another One Has Been Ordered
October 1st.

This Makes Five in Six Years.—Mr.
Ebbert the New Postman.

A NEW SUBSTITUTE NOW

Postmaster F. M. Fisher today received notice that the postoffice department had allowed Paducah another letter carrier. This was good news, but was not unexpected.

An inspector was here recently and after going over the city, recommended another carrier, and the department has ordered him installed, effective October 1st.

Mr. S. E. Ebbert, now a substitute, will be the new postman. His route has not been decided on. The object of these new carriers is to lighten the work of the other carriers, who would soon have more than they can do as the city expands and grows.

The new carrier will make eleven for Paducah. There were only six when Postmaster F. M. Fisher took charge of the office six years ago, and he has succeeded in getting almost one a year since he has been postmaster.

It has been the aim and desire of Postmaster Fisher to give the public the best possible service, and the increase in the free delivery force shows to what extent he has been successful in this respect.

Mr. El. Riley has been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Hattie Clark, and J. A. Tra-ham will be promoted from second substitute to succeed Mr. Riley, leaving a substitute mail carrier position to fill.

BRANDED AS A FAKE

MEXICAN POLICE SAY THERE IS NO
TRUTH IN THE STORY.

Mexico City, Sept. 15.—The police of the city were interviewed in regard to a news dispatch received here, under a Houston, Tex., date, which dispatch, asserted to this city, tells of an alleged conspiracy on the part of two Spaniards, natives of Barcelona, to assassinate President Roosevelt, of the United States.

The dispatch stated that the police department had advance information of the coming of the conspirators and had arranged to apprehend them upon arrival at Vera Cruz, but further states that the plans of the police miscarried, and that the alleged criminals had landed and disappeared.

The police officials deny positively that there was any truth in the report and stated that in view of the friendly relations existing between the sister republics, if advance information of the coming of two dangerous criminals had been received steps would at once have been taken to apprehend the men and get the facts.

The officials authoritatively stated that the system of espionage of the Mexican police department had reached a degree of proficiency that it would be almost impossible for them to make such a blunder as the alleged disappearance of the two criminals at Vera Cruz would indicate. In conclusion the official branded the Houston story as a canard, pure and simple.

BRITISH SHIP WHILE RUNNING A BLOKADE STROOK A MINE.

Obelo, September 15.—The British sailing vessel Lucia, supposed to be blockading running, struck a mine at Port Arthur today, and sank. Only one of the crew was saved.

EIGHT DROWNED.

Wilmington, Del., September 15.—
During a storm last night the tug Israel W. Durham, sunk in Delaware river off the mouth of Christian creek.
Of the ten men aboard, but two were saved.

Of nearly 10,000 union men still unemployed in the Chicago stock yards, 600 were reinstated.

A shadowless world would be a sun-
less one.

A BEAUTIFUL DAY FOR THE SHOOTERS

Hans Wagner the Winner of the First Event.

Noted Baseball Player Hit Everything—Tomorrow the Championship Shoot Comes Off.

ENTRIES FOR TODAY'S EVENTS

No better weather could be expected for shooting than that provided by the weather man today. The day has been auspicious, ideal for looking over the barrel of a gun. The atmosphere, cool and healthful, enlivened the gunners. Additional shooters arrived last night and this morning and today's contest is the biggest and most successful ever pulled off by the local gun club.

Hans Wagner, of the Pittsburgh ball team, which is playing at League Park this afternoon, one of the most celebrated baseball players in the world, was the central figure in the first event this morning. Nothing was too good for the diamond hero.
The local gun club officials treated him, especially, to Kentucky hospitality and after the first event appealed to him to enter the second event but he would not for fear that he might make his arm sore, which would be a handicap in his ball playing. Wagner distinguished himself in the seven live bird event by killing straights. The entrance fee was $5 and "Hans" left the traps $2.50 to the good. Wagner is a great lover of sport and if he did not devote all of his time to baseball would no doubt be one of the country's crack shots.

This is the third day of the tournament. Tomorrow the Kentucky championship will be decided under the auspices of the Kentucky Trapshooters' League. Twenty-five live birds will be shot at and those contesting for the state championship must reside in the bounds of Kentucky. Other shooters may enter but they will only be considered for the prizes. The winner of the state championship gets a handsome trophy cup, which he will retain until he is beaten.

Event No 1 was at seven live birds.
The entries were as follows: Anderson, Ben Starr, Marshall, Brady, Wilson, Page, Wagner, Edwards, Le-Compte, Quincy Ward, Clay, Spencer,
Armstrong, Duncan, Kennedy, Moses Starr, Hansbro, Alexander, Lyons and Moner. The entrance fee was $5.
Those who killed straights were:
Anderson, B. Starr, Brady, Wilson,
Wagner, Clay, Spencer, M. Starr,
Alexander and Moner.

At 11 o'clock the second event,
which was a twelve live birds, started and was finished about 2 o'clock. At present time the secretary had not finished making a list of the high guns.
The entries were: Marshall, Brady, LeCompte, Duncan, Q. Ward, Clay,
Spencer, Kennedy, B. Starr, Edwards,
Hansbro, Moner, M. Starr, Anderson,
Page, Wilson, Beyer, Alexander, Armstrong, Prowse. The entrance fee was $10.

At press time the most important event of the tournament was in progress—the Paducah handicap. This shoot is at twenty-five live birds, the entrance fee being $15. A large number are taking part.
Ed Brady, of Newbern, Tenn., member of the Paducah Gun Club, won the local club medal on the two first days' shoot at targets. He also beat all the professionals and captured the high average cup. Both of these trophies are handsome and Brady is very proud of his successes. This is the first time in the history of the Paducah club that such a thing has been done.

The shooting yesterday was again at 195 clay targets, and resulted in the following missed.
Marshall 20; Brady, 17; Wilson,
20; Spencer, 11; LeCompte, 35; Quincy
Ward, 25; Clay, 43; Meaders, 44;
Moses Starr, 26; Edwards, 31; Ben
Starr, 18; Mercer, 31; P. C. Ward, 30;
Armstrong, 27; G. Ward, 20; Prowse, 15.

At Cynthia's Jake Connor was given a sentence of twenty-one years
for the murder of James Robinson.
Kindness is more convincing than
keenness.

NEW YORK SLATE CHOSEN LAST NIGHT

The Higgins Faction Controls
Republican Convention.

Judge Parker May Yet Take the Stump Himself in a Short Time.

GORMAN SUCCEEDS TAGGART

Saratoga, N. Y., September 15.—
The following ticket will be chosen by the Higgins supporters, nominated by the Republican State Convention:

For Governor—Frank W. Higgins, of Cattaraugus.
For Lieutenant Governor—Governor
M. Linn Bruce, of New York.
For Secretary of State—John F.
O'Brien, of Clinton.
For Attorney General—Julius M.
Mayer, of New York.

For State Engineer and Surveyor—
Henry A. Van Alstyne, of Columbia.
For Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals—Edgar M. Cullen, of Kings.
For Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals—William E. Werner, of Monroe.

PARKER MAY SPEAK.

Chicago, September 15.—Judge
Alton B. Parker may go on the platform within the next six weeks and respond personally to the questions asked by President Roosevelt in the latter's letter of acceptance, according to National Committeeman J. G.
Johnson, of Kansas.

Mr. Johnson says that Senator Gorman is to have charge of the campaign, superseding Chairman Taggart and Executive Chairman Sheehan.

Judge Parker will go to New York
this week and consult with the national committee. It is the belief of the members of the national committee that he will go on the platform and reply to some of the queries of President Roosevelt. Former President Cleveland and Mr. Bryan also will speak for Judge Parker.

FOUR SPEECHES

HON. JOHN W. VERKES TO SPEND TIME IN DOUBTFUL STATES.

Washington, Sept. 15.—On invitation of the republican national committee
John W. Verkes, commissioner of Internal Revenue, will make several speeches in doubtful states between October 5 and 26. His itinerary has not yet been arranged. Mr. Verkes will make four speeches in Kentucky in November in an endeavor to aid the cause of the republicans in the Bluegrass state.

TO DISMANTLE

FORMAL PERMISSION GRANTED
RUSSIAN COMMANDER.

Washington, September 15.—The navy department received a dispatch from San Francisco today stating that Captain Berlin, of the Russian auxiliary cruiser Lena, had formally asked permission to dismantle his ship.

LIVELY TIME

NEW YORK GETS A WATERSPOUT
AND AN EARTHQUAKE.

New York, Sept. 15.—The heaviest mist storm that visited this vicinity for some time descended upon New York last night and early this morning. The streets were filled with water and traffic on trolley cars and elevated trains was paralyzed for some time. Great damage to shipping is reported. Following the heavy thunderstorm last night, severe earthquake shocks were felt over northern New York. In this city the buildings trembled.

At Cynthia's Jake Connor was
given a sentence of twenty-one years
for the murder of James Robinson.

Kindness is more convincing than
keenness.

SOLDIERS CARRIED AWAY BY BALLOON

Chicago Merchant Denies That He Is Ill in Paris.

Judge Parker and H. G. Davis
Are Both in New York
Today.

THE MEXICAN VETERANS MEET

Vienna, Sept. 15.—A peculiar accident happened today at the maneuvers at Hinkmacker, Hungary, while sixty-four artillery men were towing a balloon back to the barracks with ropes,
which many wound about their bodies.
A sudden gust lifted the balloon and most of the men cut themselves loose,
but eight were carried away, and dashing against the rocks, the corporal was instantly killed, while a soldier was impaled on his own bayonet. He died a short time later, and the rest are terribly injured. The balloon vanished.

MARSHALL FIELD NOT ILL.

Paris, Sept. 15.—Marshall Field, the Chicago merchant, today requested your correspondent to deny that he is seriously ill. The report is absolutely untrue. He has a cold, but is ready to go out as soon as the weather clears up.

BOTH IN NEW YORK.

New York, Sept. 15.—Henry G. Davis, democratic vice presidential candidate,
arrived at Hotel Astor this morning,
and Judge Parker arrived later. The day will be devoted to political conferences.

MEXICAN VETERANS.

St. Louis, Sept. 15.—The 31st annual reunion of Mexican war veterans opened in East St. Louis today, and will close Saturday at the world's fair. A hundred and fifty out of three hundred active members are present.

WANTS IT BACK

ITALY ASKS PIERPONT MOR-GAN FOR MISSING COPE.

New York, Sept. 15.—The Italian government has asked that J. P.
Morgan restore the sacred cope of As-coli, which was stolen from the cathedral there two years ago. To this proposition Mr. Morgan says: "I am not in a position to discuss the matter."

The proposition for the recovery of the relic was advanced by the Italian ambassador in London, Sig. Panza, who has communicated with the representative there of Mr. Morgan, repeating the facts in connection with the theft of the cope, which was purchased by Mr. Morgan and is now on exhibition in the Kensington museum. He requests that arrangements be made for its return to Ancon.

Before taking this action the Italian embassy communicated with the curator of the Kensington museum and requested him to furnish the embassy with Morgan's address, which the curator said he was unable to give.

Mr. Morgan insists that he bought the cope with good American dollars,
and that it is his property by right
of purchase.

TROOPS WITHDRAWN

ALL AGAIN LOVELY BETWEEN
NICARAGUA AND HONDURAS.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 15.—The dispute between the republics of Nicaragua and Spanish Honduras has been amiably settled and Honduran troops have been withdrawn from Nicaraguan territory. The central point of the disputed territory was Fort Dietrich, while the chief points of contention
were the rights that are now enjoyed by the United States and Nicaraguan company, a Pittsburgh mining syndicate, under a concession for which the American paid company $100,000 to the Nicaraguan government two years ago.

Great destruction is said to have resulted from the explosion of a bomb
at the gate of an orphan asylum at Barcelona.

BRANCH LINES FOR TENNESSEE CENTRAL

The New Road to Branch Ont
Some.

Branches to Pembroke and North Christian County Coal Fields are Probable.

NOTHING DEFINITE GIVEN OUT

The Tennessee Central railroad, now a "feeder" for the Illinois Central, intends to construct several branch lines within the next year, it is asserted on reliable authority.

At the present time this road is spending anywhere from $5,000 to $8,000 a month on improvements in the way of enlarging its terminal facilities, ballasting its road bed and building new depots
along its line and enlarging its yards.

Information has not yet been given out officially regarding the contemplated extensions, but it is understood that they will be of an extensive nature.

It is understood that the joint agency of the I. C. and T. C., in Hopkinsville will not continue a great while. It is said to be the purpose of the T. C. to cross Little river and construct a station and yards in the Mercer property.

It is known definitely whether any of the proposed branches will be constructed from Hopkinsville. Pembroke is anxious for a branch, and a line to the North Christian coal fields has been considered.

THE LUCAS CASE

ARGUMENTS INVOLVING RIGHT TO REMOVE AUDITOR'S AGENTS
HEARD.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 15.—Special Judge Carroll heard the arguments in the mandamus suit of Revenue Agent
F. A. Lucas, of Paducah, against Auditor
S. W. Hager to compel Auditor Hager to accept the bond of Lucas as such agent.

Lucas was appointed under Auditor
Conner under the act of 1902, and claims under the act of his appointment that he was appointed for a fixed term of four years.

Judge J. H. Hazelrigg appeared for Lucas. It was argued for the auditor that the law fixing the term did not apply in such a case and precedents were showing the removal of appointive officers on the ground of public policy.

Judge Carroll took the case under submission.

INCREASE IN ARMY.

KAISER WILL ASK THE REICH-
STAG FOR 30,000 OR 40,000
ADDITIONAL TROOPERS.

Berlin, September 15.—The government will ask the Reichstag this year to increase the strength of the army probably 30,000 or 40,000 men, so that part of the 100,000 young men fit
for service, but rejected each year,
can be trained.

The government intended to introduce a bill to this effect in 1903, but financial reasons caused a postponement.

GUATEMALAN MINISTER.

New York, Sept. 15.—Dr. Munoz, the Guatemalan Minister, who is now in this city, shortly will present his credentials to the president. Dr.
Munoz, denies that fresh efforts are being made to start a revolution in his country.

ARGUMENTS ON THE REGISTRATION LAW

The Test Case Came up at Covington Before a Special Judge.

The Judge Was Appointed By the Administration, Which Had the Law Passed Last Winter.

NO DECISION YET RENDERED

Covington, Ky., September 15.—
Some puzzling questions were asked by W. H. Mackey, who was appointed judge to hear the suit brought to test
the constitutionality of the new registration law, when the case came up for hearing in Covington. The suit was brought by Dr. J. D. Collins against County Clerk Yates, of Covington, to enjoin him from issuing the registration blanks. Attorney D.
W. Farleigh, of Louisville, made the opening argument and spoke of what great opportunities the new registration offered for fraud, as a man could not vote unless he had a certificate from the county clerk.

"Why was the law passed?" he asked. "And for what purpose was it designed?"

"A man is no less a thief because he steals a man's vote," he said, "and a man's vote is a sacred thing. Every device and every subterfuge which seeks to destroy this right should be trampled under foot."

When he had finished, Judge Mackey asked him if he didn't think one of the main issues was whether or not the county clerk had the right to have the certificates printed, if the election
officers could not disregard an unconstitutional act, and that he would like it made plain whether the plaintiff had the right to bring the suits unless he had been refused the right to vote,
as this was not an action by the taxpayers to enjoin the unconstitutional expenditure of funds.

Attorney Farleigh replied that they had the right to suppose that the plaintiff might be refused the privilege of voting. Judge Mackey stated that he thought these points should be discussed, and as there was no objection, he allowed the plaintiffs the opportunity of amending their petition to cover this phase of the case.

Attorney Charles Farber for Yates, argued that the constitution granted
the legislature the right to provide registration laws, and left the form of the registration to the discretion of the legislature. At the conclusion of the arguments Judge Mackey took the case under submission, and will render a decision today or tomorrow.

A QUARREL.

CAUSED A YOUNG LADY TO HANG HERSELF.

Mt. Washington, Ky., September
15.—Nora Martin, one of the prettiest
and most popular young girls of Mt.
Washington, committed suicide by hanging herself from a rafter in one of the rooms of her home. She was found by her mother and not down by one of her three brothers. She is said to have been engaged to a young man of the neighborhood and to have quarreled with him about some trivial matter the night before. She said nothing about it at home though, and appeared as bright and cheerful as usual during the morning and up to the time she was last seen alive.

Miss Martin was but eighteen years of age and was the daughter of Mrs.
Lizzie Martin, her father being dead.
She had gone about the ankle very secretly and deliberately, bringing the rope from the barn unseen and mounting a ladder to attach it to a hook in the rafter.

LLOYD TO MANAGE PADUCAH TEAM

Negotiations were closed this morning
by "Chief" Lloyd and the local baseball management by which Lloyd will manage the team next year. John S. Ray,
the present manager, will return to Louisville.

Cairo, 2; Vincennes, 0.
Hopkinsville, 6; Henderson, 2.

PADUCAH TOOK BOTH.
The Indians took both games in the double-header with Clarksville yesterday.

Brahle pitched the first game for the Indians and Collins pitched for the victors. The game was conspicuous for heavy hitting and errors on Paducah's side.

Ah There, Cairo!
Cairo lost the pennant and every club in the league is glad of it. Cairo whines "fraud" and "trickery" but that doesn't matter, it's only Cairo, and shows the streak of yellow in her. There is no reason Paducah and Cairo should fall out, however. Cairo got it last year and Paducah didn't cry over it. Paducah won it this year and Cairo should keep a stiff upper lip and remember that Paducah deserved it. Paducah has defeated Cairo more games than Cairo defeated Paducah, and has in every way demonstrated that the Paducah club has most of the time been superior to Cairo. Cairo's tactics have turned every club in the league against her, and there is not one that isn't glad Paducah got the rag. This should be a lesson to our neighbors. Be sportsmen, and if you lose, lose with good grace. Smile and take your medicine, Cairo.—If you can

All Going Home.
The pennant-winning Indians are preparing to return home. No exhibition games could be secured from any team, but there is talk of waiting until Sunday when the L. A. L. team with Chief Lloyd in the box, will play a benefit game. It is hoped the benefit game will be arranged.

A Little Dope.
Lon Hedges, who has been pitching for Springfield, Ill., in the Three-Eye league, is expected home in a few days. He has lost but five games this season, and has been recalled by Milwaukee, it is understood, for next season.

Eddie Powers was on the pennant team last year and this year also.

McGill's hitting in yesterday's game was excellent. In the first he batted 1,000.

Smith batted 1,000 in the last game yesterday.

Collins had steam yesterday, but the Indians had out their battling eye.

Now comes the time for figuring out averages. Every team has a complete record of its players, both fielding and hitting and a comparison with the secretary's averages will doubtless show some differences. The secretary has the same records of each team, however, but the scores will figure differently. There will be no padding of the averages, however, as this can be readily detected.

President Thompson stated today that every game in which suspended Central League players played for Cairo would probably be thrown out.

Both games yesterday were won by one score. They were won in the last inning too. The scores in both games stood 5 to 4.

The last game yesterday was a seven-inning contest.

THE PADUCAH BOYS BATTED OUT VICTORY

The Indians After a Shifting Season, Won Pennant.

They Had Played Some Star as Well as Very Bad Ball, But Finished Well.

ALL ARE PLEASED BUT CAIRO

The Paducah team is the pennant winner in the K. I. T. baseball league and every town in the league with the exception of Cairo is glad the Indians were successful.

Yesterday Paducah took both games from Clarksville and won the "rag" with a good margin. The pennant race this year was the most exciting of any league that has yet finished and the Indians came in and batted out victories from the Parasites when it seemed sure the Cairo boys had the pennant within their grasp.

At the beginning of the season Mr. Sam Jackson had the team and had gotten together a good bunch of players. Mr. John S. Ray was engaged as manager and managed the team the entire season through, even after the franchise was sold to Messrs. Thompson, Walker and Keller.

The team experienced some little trouble by Nippert and Bateman jumping their contracts early in the season, but played the best ball possible under the circumstances. The team settled down to hard team work and won the greatest number of straight games won by any team this season. Bad luck then struck the team and a losing streak took all the ginger out of the players. They became dissatisfied with the management and finally "struck." Mr. Jackson being unable to get the boys to play under him, he was urged to sell his franchise which he did and when the new management took charge the team played like fends to win the pennant. Bateman and Lally were secured and also Jonno, and the team strengthened as such as possible. The Cairo team struck a winning streak when Paducah was losing, and soon was much ahead of Paducah. The Indians were not discouraged and still played. When the final windup of the season came around with six games between Cairo and Paducah, the Indians took five out of the six and with it took all the ginger out of the Parasites. The Cairo boys went to Clarksville and got a majority of games, but as Lunatics at Hopkinsville threw them down good and hard, and Henderson put them in the rear. Finally when Vincennes was reached, and when Paducah was taking two out of three games, Cairo lost and fell into second place where he finally landed.

The Vincennes, Clarksville, Henderson and Hopkinsville teams have all expressed their pleasure at Paducah winning out but Cairo is taking it with bad grace and claims the pennant was stolen. Cairo strengthened with Central League players and made a desperate fight, but Paducah had the stronger team.

The pennant winners line-up as follows: Land, catcher; Lally, first base; Potts, second base; Gerard, third base; Bateman, short stop; Hurley, left field; Powers, center field; McGill, right field. The pitching staff of the Indians is Bonno, Doll, Freeman, Brahle, McGill and Brady. Of the pitchers Brady, McGill and Freeman are excellent fielders, McGill working in the field most of the time.

HURT BY TRAIN

G. W. PURCELL, GRAYSON SPRINGS, BROUGHT HERE.

G. W. Purcell, of Grayson Springs, was struck by a car or engine last night at 4 o'clock and his left leg badly hurt.

He was brought here from Grayson last night and the wound sewed up. He was under the influence of chloroform and had not fully recovered this afternoon, and could not give an account of the accident. It is presumed he was struck and knocked down by a train. The injury is serious, but will not necessitate the amputation of the limb.

DIVORCES ARE ON THE INCREASE IN THE UNITED STATES AT PRESENT

Divorces in the United States are on the increase in numbers, according to figures presented by the census bureau. The latest show that five out of every 1,000 men married are living in a state of divorce.

The census returns dispute the theory that early marriage leads oftentimes to divorce. A note of warning is also sounded to women who persist in marrying men of a raving class, who enter on matrimony late in life, and, for the guidance of those who know, it is figured out, in cold and passionless statistics, of just what classes of employment men are most frequently seen in the divorce court.

Census figures on divorce reveal the relative fickleness of men according to their following in life. This table, based on the number of those divorced out of every 100 married, shows some interesting comparisons.

Soldiers, marines and sailors, 24; lawyers, 12; actors, 17; agricultural laborers, 15; bartenders, 15; servants and waiters, 13; wood choppers, 12; musicians and teachers of music, 12; stock raisers, herders and drovers, 10; photographers, 10; paper hangers, 10; barbers and hair dressers, 9; lumbermen and raftsmen, 9; clock and watchmakers and repairers, 9; painters, glaziers and varnishers, 9.

On further analysis the census bureau found that most of the occupations given contain a high percentage of bachelors. Statistics show that in nine of the fifteen occupations in this list the tendency to defer marriage is exceptionally strong.

LIQUOR DEALERS

MEETING NOW IN SESSION AT LOUISVILLE.

The annual convention of the Kentucky State Liquor League is in session at Louisville. Nearly 100 delegates are present—Lexington, Covington, Paducah, Frankfort, Henderson, Owensboro and Bowling Green and a number of the large cities of the state are represented. The convention will last two days if the work before it can be concluded in that time.

The principal business which will come up will be discussions looking to improvements in the retail liquor traffic. A rift for the next convention will be selected and officers for the coming year will be chosen. The officers at present are: H. S. McNitt, of Louisville, president; William Cashion, of Owensboro, vice president; J. J. Galvin, of Lexington, recording secretary; Henry Lawler, of Louisville, financial secretary, and George Reichman, of Henderson, treasurer.

Lieutenant Governor Henry Roberts was nominated by Connecticut Republicans for governor on the first ballot.

Somehow the man who does not know right from wrong always does wrong.

MEETS 20TH

ELECTION BOARD DID NOT HOLD MEETING TODAY.

The election board of McCracken county, composed of Capt. Ed. Farley, republican, Mr. J. M. Martin, democrat, and Circuit Clerk Emory Hanson, will meet about the 20th to appoint election officers. Today was the time originally set. In all counties except where there is a second class city the clerk is the third member of the committee. This law was passed last winter for the purpose of ousting a sheriff at Lexington, and a suit has now been filed to test it.

CENTRAL UNION MEETS.
Central Labor Union meets this evening and a report will then be heard from the Labor Day committee. Nearly $500 was cleared by the Labor Day celebration. It is probable the date for crowning the Goddess of Labor, Miss Ollie Crandall, will be decided on.

IMPORTANT CASE

Referee Bagby to Pass on New State Law.

It Comes Up in Connection With a Bankruptcy Case.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock E. W. Bagby, referee in bankruptcy, will hear an important matter and render a decision which will be the first test in the new court of the new legislative law regarding the sale of stock in bulk with out a notification of creditors, has been subjected to.

Recently a law was passed by the legislature compelling property holders to make a report to the creditors before he sold his stock if he sold in bulk and in the matter of the sale of the Robertson and Sellers saloon to Dr. H. Hesch, it is alleged by creditors that the saloon was sold in violation of this law.

A suit was filed by Attorneys Eaton & Drake in the state court to settle the matter, but Sellers, one of the owners, later took the bankruptcy law and the case will now have to go into the federal court.

Referee Bagby will have to tomorrow decide if the law can be enforced in the federal courts and if it can will render a decision as to whether the stock was sold in bulk without notice to creditors. Referee Bagby will in fact hold a regular court and the outcome will be watched with interest.

This point of law has never been tested at all in this end of the state.

A JUBILEE

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Episcopal announcement has been made in the Catholic church of the jubilee ordered by Pope Pius to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the definition of the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception, which was proclaimed on December 8, 1854, at a Vatican council held in Rome. Several American bishops were present at the time. The jubilee will be observed by the faithful by paying three visits to their parish churches, observing the black fast for one day, praying for the intentions of the Holy Father and going to confession and communion. This is the first jubilee ordered by the present pope and the first since that of the new century celebration.

DETAILS COMPLETED.

County Treasurer H. H. Loving has returned from New York, where he went in the interest of the county in connection with the refunding of $100,000 worth of county bonds. The details were completed and the old bonds will be turned over to the county in a few days and the new bonds become effective.

Near Booneville, Owsley county, Sam Hall, aged seventeen, was shot and instantly killed by Mary Penny, his sweetheart. She alleges the shooting was accidental but was arrested.

THE SECRETARY WAS WELL PLEASED

Mr. Snyder Will Recommend Removal of Pink Slip.

Will Ask the Underwriters Board to Make It Date From September 1.

HAS RETURNED TO LOUISVILLE

Mr. Claude F. Snyder, secretary of the Kentucky and Tennessee board of underwriters, has returned to Louisville after making a minute inspection of the local fire departments, and will recommend the removal of the pink slip from Paducah insurance policies at once, in fact Mr. Snyder will recommend that the date of removal be made September 1st, but does not know what the board will do.

Yesterday Mr. Snyder and Commissioner C. C. Rose visited each station and made a thorough inspection. At the central station the aerial truck was tested and the firemen made a test raise and all was satisfactory.

Mr. Rose stated this morning regarding Mr. Snyder's inspection and his intentions: Mr. Snyder will recommend the removal of the pink slip from insurance policies here, but he did not find the departments exactly complete as far as complying with the recommendations of the underwriters. He found 5 alarm boxes had to be established yet and that 2,500 feet of hose was not at hand. The hose, however, is en route here, and in the assurance of Mayor Yeiser that the boxes would be put in at once, he will make a favorable report.

Mr. Snyder was impressed with Paducah and says the fire fighting facilities are as near complete as can be found anywhere. The accommodations are far better than most cities of even several thousand greater in population.

TODAY'S DEATHS.

Mrs. Annal Flora, age 44, died of malarial fever at 605 Campbell street this morning and the remains will be shipped to Calvert City for interment. She leaves a husband and one child.

Miss Hudson, age 12 years, died last night at 7 o'clock of malarial fever at 154 Clements street and will be buried this afternoon at Oak Grove.

PENNY POSTAGE

May Have to be Postponed for Many Years.

Two-Cent Postage With Europe May Have to Be Given Up.

Because of the great increase in the appropriations for rural delivery post office officials say that any thought of having penny letter postage in the United States must be postponed many years.

Penny postage as well as possible 2-cent postage with Europe, which reports from abroad indicate will also have to be given up, have been pet projects of Postmaster General Payne ever since he has been at the head of the post-office department.

When Mr. Payne became postmaster general the postoffice revenues were almost equal to the expense—a condition very unusual. He then conceived the idea that penny postage might be possible in a few years, but the addition of free rural delivery, the expenses of which have quite overbalanced the receipts, changed the aspect of the affair.

According to figures which have just been prepared by Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Britton, the rural free delivery in operation June 30, 1905, will cost approximately $20,000,000 a year. The department also has plans for extension next year, which will increase the cost $5,000,000.

The entire scheme of free rural delivery is to increase the system gradually each year until the entire country is covered. It is believed that such a complete service will cost at least $40,000,000.

GUEST OF PIRATES

ATTORNEY D. H. HUGHES CAMP TO PADUCAH WITH THEM.

Attorney D. H. Hughes was a Pittsburgh National League ball player last night or rather he was so nearly one that any one acquainted with the attorney might have thought so.

Mr. Hughes was coming from Louisville and on leaving Louisville found the sleeper crowded. The conductor gave him a berth with the Pittsburgh baseball team, which had a special sleeper and Mr. Hughes spent the night with the team. He was side-tracked with the team at the depot. His route to town with the boys and says that the team is composed of the best of fellows. They are gentlemen and enjoy life immensely. Mr. Hughes was favorably impressed with the members of the team and says it all ball players are as intelligent and gentlemanly as the "Pirates" that baseball had a lot of gentlemen keeping it alive.

REPUBLICAN CLAIMS OUT WEST.

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat.)

In the west, at least, the drift is all in the republican direction. Parker has no personal following outside of a few eastern states, and the chances are that he will carry none of those. He lacks the vigor and the personal popularity of Roosevelt. Even though Parker's friends pretend that his nomination would insure a big campaign fund to the democrats, there is no good reason to suppose that the solid business interests of New York will go to him. He may or may not be better than his party but it is certain that his triumph would put his party in power, and that circumstance is calculated to keep him from carrying New York this year. The swing of democratic newspapers in the west over to the republican side is an evidence that the Mississippi valley and the Pacific slope are going to roll record-breaking majorities for the republicans in 1906.

A lookout of building trades workers has been ordered at Wilkesbarre, Pa.

CROP REPORT

FARM WORK IS WELL UP BUT PLOWING IS DELAYED.

The weekly crop bulletin is as follows:

The temperature averaged about normal for the week. Clear, warm days and cool nights were the rule. Scattered local showers were reported in the north-central counties, but the area visited was small. In many localities the drought is becoming severe. Corn ripened rapidly and cutting has begun. The barley fields are generally fine, but the late planting has been seriously injured by drought and the yield will be somewhat less than expected.

Tobacco cutting has progressed well, the weather being favorable. There has been some complaint of tobacco burning in barns, but it is generally curing well. The late fields have been injured to quite an extent by drought and the outlook is not quite so favorable.

Plowing for wheat sowing has been retarded or entirely stopped by the dry weather. Pastures are badly dried up and water for stock is becoming scarce.

In some localities there is a good peach crop, but as a whole it is light. Apples continue to deteriorate.

Irish and sweet potatoes have done fairly well. Gardens are badly dried up.

Hemp has nearly all been cut and the crop is reported to be below the average.

Millet and forage peas have yielded fairly well.

Farm work is well up with the exception of plowing, which has been delayed by dry weather.

EXCHANGED CLOTHES

VIRGINIA YOUTH DRESS HIS MOTHER'S CLOTHES AND BREAKS JAIL.

Bristol, Va., September 15.—Wiley Gibson, a youth being held in the Lee county jail at Jonesville, Va., to await conveyance to the penitentiary at Richmond, to serve a five years' sentence for robbery, made good his escape yesterday by departing from the prison clad in the dress and bonnet of his aged mother, who called to say good bye. Gibson's escape was discovered when a fellow prisoner found the aged lady sitting in the cell dressed in the clothes her son had discarded.

MORE BIDS

THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS DESIRE TO BE PREPARED.

The Knights of Pythias of Paducah are going to renew their fight for the K. of P. Widows' and Orphans' Home, and hope by the time the committee arrives here in a few days to have several good sites to show them.

The local committee, of which Mr. L. S. Gleaves is chairman, has been authorized to receive additional bids for desirable sites and hopes to get several more.

LARGER GROUNDS

ARE NECESSARY FOR THE WALLACE SHOWS.

The Wallace circus which will be in Paducah tomorrow, will not show at Twelfth and Trimble streets, as originally intended. The advance men today ascertained that the grounds are not large enough, and the grounds back of the railroad hospital have been secured. These are near Sixteenth and Broadway and are amply large.

PYTHIANS TO MEET.

The local Knights of Pythias will meet this evening at the Gleaves furniture store to arrange for entertaining the committee from the building committee that is making a tour of cities desiring the Pythian Home, and will visit Paducah shortly.

Former Mayor of Middletown a Principal in the Litigation.

Middletown, Ky., Sept. 14.—Mrs. Blanche McDowell has filed a suit for divorce against Capt. D. E. McDowell, former mayor of Middletown. In the present suit at Joplin, Mo. There is a great deal of romance connected with the case. About twelve years ago Capt. McDowell, then a prominent politician of New City, Kan., wooed and became engaged to Miss Blanche Wilson, of that place. McDowell moved to Middletown and the engagement was broken. In social set. A month later Mrs. McDowell went to California, but returned to Joplin here, and was elected the second mayor of the town. The happiness of man in this life does not consist in the absence, but in the mastery, of his passions.—Rochefoucault

THE WEATHER.

Fair and warmer with probable frost in the eastern portion of the state. Fair in the west portion Friday.

OUR JUDICIARY.

In commenting on the refusal of a Kentucky judge to vacate the bench when an effort was made to swear him off, the Henderson Gleaner remarks:

"This thing of swearing judges off the bench is getting to be a menace to the judiciary of the state. Waiting the question as to whether or not the party in this case had good and constitutional grounds for moving the court to vacate the bench, we do know in many cases the causes are not constitutional causes. Often times it is made purely to get delay; often it is the result of some pique on the part of the attorney or the client and sometimes both."

"Our constitution has defined the causes for which a judge should vacate the bench. If we had confined ourselves to those causes there would have been no conflict or confusion. But the legislature was not satisfied with the causes enumerated in the constitution and so made several additions. Then the court of appeals was dissatisfied with the causes that the legislature had done and undertook to amend and improve on the causes; that court made a sort of straddle and, as usual with such work, made confusion more confounded. To say our law on that subject is in a deplorable condition is to state the case in its mildest form. It is always best to adhere to the constitution."

This may be all right so far as it goes, but the presumption is that no person, as a rule, is going to attempt to swear a judge off the bench unless he believes he has a good reason for it.

If Judge Cantrell had vacated the bench when he should, in trials of the alleged Goebel conspirators, the tax-payers might have been saved the enormous expense of several trials. He insisted on trying the cases contrary to law and the wishes of the defendants, until the court of appeals decided against him. This is only one instance.

There are a number of circuit judges in Kentucky of inferior ability, and the result is the court of appeals is constantly reversing some of them, entailing a burden on the people by necessitating new trials, or costing the parties to suits a great deal of money that would be saved if only men who know the law were elevated to the judiciary. One trouble is that too many politician-lawyers are elected judges.

Take a man like our own circuit judge, W. M. Reed. No one would fear to have the merits of a case involving life, liberty or property tried before a man like him. He is a broad-minded, capable man, free from all prejudices, and cares nothing about politics. This is the kind of material from which to select our judges. If they were all like Judge Reed there would be no such thing as swearing judges off the bench.

No, it is not as our contemporary suggests, the swearing off of judges that is a menace to the judiciary of the state, but the election or appointment of the wrong men to such responsible positions.

A CHANCE FOR THE TAX-PAYERS.

If the republicans of Paducah, the independents, and those democrats who have long been disgusted with unbridled misrule, will go out and vote in November, they can keep a lot of deadwood out of the local boards. The republicans of Paducah will probably name men for the offices to be filled. They will be selected because they are republicans, but because they are good men or the places, and will save the people of Paducah the expense of a long, economical and successful campaign, something the people have not had for several years.

It is high time the tax-payers of Paducah saw the men who see their money, and ruthlessly and constantly plundered—were awake to the realization that there is no sense, reason or benefit in electing men to office simply because they are democrats. More than this should be required of them, and it is time it were. Only half the boards are to be chosen this year, but half of any board can block inimical legislation and throttle graft. The other half might as easily prevent beneficial measures, but it would not dare do it. With half the boards composed of good, progressive men, there would be no more delay, chicanery or graft. This is what the tax-payers want to stop, and they can stop it by electing good men in November.

The disgusting incompetency displayed for the past year in the matter of public improvements is enough to justify every voter, of whatever political creed, in casting his ballot for a new set of officers.

THE SCHOOL AGE.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction James H. Fugate, of Frankfort, has written to local school authorities that "the law as to children not being able to enter the public schools of Kentucky, unless they are 6 years of age, previous to the first day of July before the term of school at which they are to enter, is very plain," and he wants the Paducah schools to appeal the decision of Judge Reed. Prof. Fugate seems to know about as much about the law governing his department as other democratic state officials know of theirs. Prof. Fugate, if he knew anything at all about the school age, would have known that the Kentucky statutes say: "Section 3212: There shall be maintained a system of public schools at which all children who are bona fide residents of the city between the ages of six and twenty years may be taught at the public expense."

In regard to school boards the same section says: "They shall have power to make by-laws and rules not in conflict herewith." This is clearly in substantiation of Judge Reed's decision. The statute enables any child six years old and not twenty years old, to attend the public schools at any time from the day he or she is 6, if school is in session.

If a board of education makes any rules to the contrary, as the one here, such rule is in conflict with the statute and is null and void, as Judge Reed has decided.

There is no excuse for a school board wanting to keep children out of school for a year if they happen to become six years old after July 1st.

Paducah now draws a per capita from the state on over 5,000 pupils, and only 2,500 of these are enrolled in the schools. The schools are, therefore, drawing the per capita on 2,500 children who are not attending school, and yet because the board can't draw a per capita on a few children 6 years old after July 1st, it declines to let them enter school for a year. In other words, while hogging the per capita on 2,500 pupils who do not attend school, for a paltry $3 or something in that neighborhood, that it can't collect on a few, it wanted to keep them out of school for a year.

The state superintendent of public instruction has shown his ignorance. There is no law to keep pupils out of the schools after they are 6 years old, and he should know it, but evidently he doesn't.

Those democrats who want a correct idea of how the populists and a great many free-silver men are going to vote in November should go out to hear Tom Watson Saturday. He has Judge Parker sized up almost as well as the republicans have sized him up. And the populists, is should not be forgotten, have been voting with the democrats for eight years.

There is an inkling of trouble in the democratic camp. Judge Parker is in New York today, and it is reported he is going to "harmonize" the judge with the populists. The judge, it is well known, is looking for another job, if he could harmonize democracy, which could be like mixing water and oil, he still couldn't win.

Dwensboro not only has steam rollers on the streets, but a new one has just been purchased for the county roads. A little of this kind of enterprise here would give McCracken better roads. But a good many people in this section are still disposed to regard steam rollers as "monstrosities."

The greatest evidence of the completeness and efficiency of President Roosevelt's letter is the dissatisfaction of the democrats. It has displeased them very much, said to say.

A "STUNT" WHICH THE VOTEES GIVE MR. PARKER TO PERFORM.
(From the N. Y. Press.)

The Democratic newspapers which have had experience in political campaigns and which discover no such Parker indications as the fellow pathfinders of the Evening Post type are picking out soft spots on which to land when the voting is over. The shrewdest and most conscientious, like the World, are giving the Democratic candidate "stunts" to do (knowing that he will not be able to perform them), so that after the election they may put all the blame of failure on him for his refusal to take such good advice. Now, we suggest that each Democratic newspaper which wishes to "save its face" before its readers may do so by dining into Mr. Parker's ears every day the query which all the voters in the United States must ask till they go out to vote. It is this:

Did Mr. Parker really believe in 1890 and 1900 that the gold standard was right as a principle when he voted for free silver?

Or does Mr. Parker really believe now that free silver is right as a principle, when he "regards" the gold standard as established?

Or does Mr. Parker believe nothing at all about the principles of the money question? Does he "regard" it as a mere political expedient, a mere election dodge, convenient?

Mr. Parker, the champion straddler in the history of the nation, has not told us, of course, what he believes about the principles of the gold standard. He has said he "regards" it as established. So does Mr. Bryan. So does everybody. Mr. Parker has given absolutely no information to the voters as to what standard he thinks is right and what he thinks is wrong. We doubt that, whichever way he thinks or if he has no convictions at all, the gold standard is reasonably safe in this country. We are not seeking to alarm any one about the future of the gold standard. But until Mr. Parker expresses some convictions on this important subject (instead of mere statements of A B C fact) we shall never know whether at still another time he could so complacently "regard" the silver standard as established as he now "regards" the gold standard as established. And this—not physical condition of the gold standard, but moral state of the Democratic candidate—is what the American voters will ponder until they go out to vote against Mr. Belmont's syndicate nominee on November 8.

HOW THE CAMPAIGN GOES.
(From the Springfield, Mass., Republican.)

As the vacation month enters its last week and September approaches, there are no signs that the people are being deeply interested in the presidential campaign.

Nor are there indications of great activity among the Democratic managers in the more quiet yet telling work of organization. Mr. Taggart of Indiana, does not appear to have got up a pound of steam; and one may look in vain for evidence of a strong hand and a dominating mind in the management of the Democratic campaign. The Republicans coolly look on and many of them are not without expectations that they will carry every northern state, except possibly Nevada.

MURDER CASE GOES OVER ANOTHER TERM

The Stanfield-Brake Witnesses Not on Hand.

The Grand Jury Indicted Will Hamilton, Brought Back From Evansville Yesterday.

NEWS OF THE OTHER COUNTIES

CIRCUIT COURT.

The case against Lee Stanfield and Tom Brake, indicted with a note on the steamer Dick Fowler, was continued this morning. This makes the second murder case this term which has been continued. The absence of prosecuting witnesses caused the postponement of trial.

"Bill" Frost, who was given 18 months in the penitentiary, today filed reasons and motion for a new trial. He was found guilty of false swearing.

The case of T. K. Harper against the Chicago Writing Machine Company was continued.

Frank Ross, colored, who sold a saw that didn't belong to him, was given one month in jail for petty larceny. He was originally held for obtaining money by false pretenses.

Will Green was acquitted on a charge of going into the News-Democrat office and taking some postage stamps.

Will Fisher, the negro arrested last spring for carrying a pistol concealed, and who had been masquerading in women's clothes at the circus grounds, was given three years for swearing he had no pistol when it was proven he did.

James Graham was acquitted on a charge of taking Charles Greer's gun and selling it as his own.

GRAND JURY REPORTS

The grand jury made another report this morning, returning one indictment against Will Hamilton, white, charged with robbery and one against Robert Craig for forgery.

This case was dismissed in court this week because of a defect in the indictment and resubmitted to the grand jury which found another bill, and one against Herbert Schulte for converting property to his own use. He is the young man employed by Belmont and who was indicted in police court of petty larceny. The case was next taken to a masters' court and then to the grand jury.

COUNTY COURT
Claude Story, of the county, age 21, and Jessie Sylvester, of the county, age 17, were this morning licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both.

POLICE COURT.

Special Officer Tom Murray, of the I. C., had an exciting time with Julian Brauber and John Miller, laborers on the I. C. Tennessee river bridge, last night at the I. C. depot. The men were drunk and cursing on the platform. Officer Murray asked them to stop, but they wouldn't and when he arrested them the other members of the gang which had come to the city to get drunk, came in on the officer, threatening to take the prisoners away, but he pulled his gun and forced the crowd back.

Miller and Brauber were fined $5 and costs each for their conduct at the depot.

The case against City Wagoner Hesselet and O. L. Hunt, for fighting, was dismissed.

Griffith was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Osborne Travis, colored, was fined $20 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

DODGED OBJECTION TO HIMSELF

(From the New York Evening Mail.)
The candidate also dodged the main objection to his own candidacy. We refer to the fact that he is in his eighty-second year. Congressman Williams gave him a chance to refer to the matter, but Mr. Davis is evidently of the opinion that the less said about it the better. The blunder of nominating a man who retired from politics twenty-one years ago, and who would be eighty-six if he lived to the end of the term for which it is proposed to elect him, cannot be removed by anything he could say. He proves himself rather wiser than John Sharp Williams in simply saying nothing about it.

81; Jones, 40; Davis, 41; Hattibro, 43; Anderson, 28; Lloyd, 67; Baker, 71; Money, 28, and Pinkston, 42. These scores show that Spender made the highest average with Brady second and Ben Starr third. Mose Starr did not shoot in his usual form.

During the day a 10 live bird match was shot and a straight score was made by Hugo, LeCompe, Wilson, Spencer, Davis, Anderson Mose Starr, Ben Starr, P. O. Ward, and Quincy Ward, while Prowse, Stinson, Ed. Jones, Brady, G. Ward, Clay and Baker missed only one bird each. Money and Haver got 5 out of 10 and Armstrong 7 out of 10.

GUN CLUB NOTES.

Among the new faces at this shoot this morning were Dr. Duncan and Harry Laine, of Louisville. They are ex-co-hive lever gentlemen and popular sportsmen.

Hans Wagner and several other members of the Pittsburgh team were prominent figures at the morning preliminaries. "Hans" is not the only shooter in the bunch and if it had not been for the game this afternoon other Pirates would have been in the list of the Paducah Handicap.

Former Gun Club Secretary W. A. Davis, of Paducah, but now a resident of Chicago, accompanied by his wife, are attending the shoot.

P. Ward and G. Ward of Walnut Ridge, Tenn., returned home last night. They are good shots.

A feature of the shoot today has been the work of James Armstrong's dog. They are retrieving to perfection. Armstrong is a member of the Paducah club. "Doc" Hays tried his dog at retrieving this morning and he worked nicely.

Ben Starr was second for high honor in the target shooting.

The shoot of the Kentucky Trap shooters' League tomorrow promises to be the best ever held by that body. Other marksmen are expected tonight.

Rider Walker, staff correspondent for the St. Louis Sportsman, is reporting the shoot. A few years ago he was christened Rider Walker. The unusual need was a bottle of champagne. The contents were poured over him. Now they are in vogue. Rider is no walker and Walker is not much of a rider but he can "shoot" the "shampagna."

Former Mayor James Lang and Haskell Hughes are official referees of the live bird shoot. No kicks or curses.

The visiting shooters say that Paducah is the best city for trapshooters in the country outside of Kansas City. In a short time it will make Kansas City a little less for the honor.

Tom Marshall, mayor of Keithsburg, Ill., and one of the greatest shot in the world, leaves tonight for Iowa.

"WHO IS HOGG?" ASKS HOGG.
(Fort Worth (Texas) Herald.)

There was very little new in Governor Hogg's speech at the state convention until he got along toward its conclusion, when some one in the audience asked:

"What about Parker?"

The big ex-governor caught the question the moment it was uttered. He was evidently expecting to be interrupted on that subject, the affected mingled surprise and ignorance.

"Parker, Parker," he repeated, questioningly.

"Who is Parker?"

He then proceeded to cast vigorous reflections upon the presidential nominee of the democratic party. He referred to him as the "back-jawed" judge and said that Roosevelt was a "trust buster" while Parker belonged to the "trust buster" party. He eulogized President Roosevelt for his successful prevention of trusts. He ridiculed the efforts which the democrats of the south are making to bring the race question into the campaign. He paid the negroes, especially the old time southern darkies, a high tribute. After ex-Gov. Hogg's speech there were calls for M. M. Crane, of Dallas, who responded briefly but with meaning. He was drawn out on Parker by questions from the audience and spoke of the national nominee in somewhat the same strain as ex-Gov. Hogg.

THE FORCES BEHIND PARKER.

(From the Post, Mont., Sept. 11.)

STOLEN HORSES

Found in Possession of a Strange Man.

He Does No Talking and is Being Held For Investigation.

Captain Joe Woods and Officer William Orr arrested a man giving the name of J. C. Smith, but who has papers and letters addressed to G. C. Kutt, this morning on the Cairo road for horse stealing. He is reticent when asked questions and the officers can learn little about him. They know, however, that he has stolen property and think they have an excellent case against him.

Smith's arrest was made under peculiar circumstances. This morning about 5 o'clock some one telephoned into police headquarters that a man was seen with two black horses going out the Cairo road and they suspected the horses were stolen, judging from the man's actions.

Two hours later while Chief Collins, Lieut. Harlan, Capt. Woods and Officer Orr were seated in the captain's room, the phone rang and a telephone message from a man named Bosworth at Fancy Farm received. Bosworth stated that some one had stolen his fine black horses and to look out for the thief.

Captain Woods and Officer Orr immediately procured a buggy and drove out the Cairo road, overtaking Smith near the Fentrell place. Smith had just started to trade one horse for a wagon and $15 to boot, when the officers nabbed him.

He returned readily enough and is being held. Bosworth will arrive here this afternoon to identify his property.

MAD HORSE

VETERINARY CALLED TODAY TO ATTEND ONE.

Dr. C. G. Warner, the veterinary surgeon, had a case of "mad horse" today, the first instance where a horse has been afflicted with rabies in Paducah in more than half a dozen years so far as known.

The horse this morning began acting rather queerly. It would run about, snort, kick up in the air and try to bite everybody and everything within reach. Dr. Warner could not get the horse in the hospital but had to tie him up in a stable where he would be out of reach of other horses.

He thinks he can save the horse and has begun to doctor him. The animal frams at the mouth and has every appearance of a rabid dog.

GRANT'S VALET.

Uncle Jerry Smith Waited Upon the Old Commander When the Latter Was President.

Washington, D. C. Jeremiah Smith, "Uncle Jerry," as he was known, a negro who had been employed at the White House for 34 years, died here after a long illness, at the age of 84 years. He was first engaged as valet to President Grant, and to this valet at least, his master was a hero, for Smith always regarded Grant as the greatest of all presidents. In later years Uncle Jerry was employed as a man of all work around the White House, and visitors in the daytime seldom failed to see him busy with a broom or feather duster, which were emblems of no small authority which he exercised among the servants of the executive mansion.

Smith made a striking appearance, for he was a tall and well formed, and his face was adorned with a mustache and long goatee, of late years quite white. His manners were those of the old time southern darkey, bland and amiable, and he was fond of cracking jokes.

"What's good enough for de president, praise Gawd, is good enough for me," he used to say when strangers asked him how he enjoyed his life at the White House.

In his early youth he was employed on a Mississippi river steambot, and until the Civil war he was a slave. He was a spiritualist and believed in ghosts. He always insisted that there were ghosts in the attic of the White House.

Another Man Ahead of Him.

An Irishman who had been out of a job many weeks found in the river that flowed through his town the body of the keeper of the railroad drawbridge. He immediately betook himself to the superintendent of the division and applied for the vacant job, saying that he had seen the body of the former keeper in the river.

"Sorry," said the superintendent briefly, "the place has been filled. We gave it to the man who saw him fall in."

Mr. Overton Brooks left this morning for Chicago to enter a medical college and complete his course in medicine.

Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, of Memphis, and Mrs. J. N. Hurto, of Laurel Station, Ia., a daughter of the former, arrived at noon to visit Mrs. Davis' son, Mr. F. G. Davis, the well-known plumber.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lee, of Montgomery, Ala., returned home at noon today after a visit to Mrs. Lee's mother, Mrs. J. T. Wright.

Mr. Thomas Dunkin, inspector of hotels and dining rooms of the I. C., of Chicago, is in the city.

Mrs. U. W. Center arrived from Nashville today at noon.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Geo. Saunders returned from Clinton this morning with witnesses in a case in Commissioner Gardner's court which will be tried this afternoon.

Chief Dispatcher L. E. McCabe, of Chicago, is still in the city looking after the block system.

Mrs. Walter Hurrest, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Teresa Hurrest, of Jones street, will leave Saturday to join her husband at Little Rock, Ark. Mrs. Hurrest's many friends will regret to see her leave.

Mrs. J. W. Pendley and daughter, Floyd, will return from St. Louis tonight.

His Explanation.

(From the St. Paul News.)

"In some ways St. Louis is a first class city," said the man who was sitting in the sleeping car smoking room "but I would not advise—"

"Did they rob you down there?" asked the man who was leaning back wearily against the plush.

"No; I must say they didn't. I was well treated at the hotels and at every other place. Nobody stuck me."

"I don't see how you worked it."

"I went there in '98."

BOARD OF WORKS

Estimates for Street Paving Passed on Last Night.

Only Two of the Members Were at the Meeting.

Mr. S. A. Fowler did not return from Chicago in time to attend the meeting of the Board of Public Works last night. Messrs. E. P. Noble and John G. Ruckliff were present and Adolph Kirkland acted as secretary of the board.

Most of the time was consumed in going over the estimates for the street paving done by Contractor E. O. Terrell, and ordering them turned over to the contractor.

The plans for the reconstruction of Broadway from Fifth to Ninth were adopted, and call for bids for both paving and bitulitho compound, and provide for double car tracks. It is expected that bids will be ready to open in ten days or two weeks.

The board decided to purchase 200 feet of new hose to use in finishing the gutters, and washing the brick streets. Heretofore cast-off hose from the fire departments has been used.

A petition from property owners for pavements from Fourteenth and Jefferson to Fountain Avenue, was referred back, as there were not enough signatures.

The board decided to recommend an ordinance for the improvement of the alley from Tenth and Boyd, on the North Side.

The board ordered Street Inspector James Eaker, to begin taking a vel from the city pits and spread it on the north side streets needing repairs. Heretofore the city bought a great deal of gravel but will now use its own. About three hundred loads have been taken out and is lying on the bank waiting to be hauled away.

NATURE STUDIES

ARE WANTED IN THE LIBRARY FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS

Mr. E. W. Hagby, president of the Carnegie Library, this morning wrote a letter to the United States National Museum, Smithsonian Institute department, asking for some specimens of studied birds for nature study for children to be placed in the Carnegie library for the benefit of children.

"We want these birds and nature objects for study for the little ones," Mr. Hagby stated, "and I have secured the endorsement of Congressman Ollie James. Mr. James writes a very nice endorsement and I think we will get the specimens."

Mr. Hagby takes a great pride in the library and if his efforts count for anything the library will be one of the most complete in the country.

CAIRO'S CLAIM

THE EGYPTIANS SAY THAT THE PENNANT RACE IS A TIE.

The following telegram received this afternoon from Cairo says:

"Sun, Paducah, Ky.

"What is Paducah's claim on the pennant? Cairo claims a tie, at the very least, or with the Goodwin game, Cairo a winner."

The Citizen.

It is not known how Cairo gets her idea about the result of the pennant race, but Paducah has won, even if Cairo has all the records.

ABILENA

Abilena is a natural water. It holds in solution salts dissolved from natural deposits in the earth. It is Nature's cathartic compound—a natural mineral water. Mineral waters are recognized everywhere as the most efficient, as well as the least injurious, cathartics. Abilena is the best mineral water on the American market. It is The American Natural Cathartic. The discovery of Abilena was a simple revelation of nature. For a long time a ter the first well was dug, the water, being unfit for domestic purposes, was not used at all. Practical tests afterward disclosed its medicinal properties and the report of its virtue was rapidly disseminated. Finally several chemists analyzed the water and the results manifested its great therapeutic value and pre-located its future renown. Sold only by

NO FROST

IT WAS PREDICTED BY MANY FOR LAST NIGHT, HOWEVER.

Frost was predicted for last night in this section, and while it was quite chilly by way of contrast with the weather of a few days ago, there was nothing like frost. The minimum last night was 50 degrees, while it takes 38 to make frost, and today has been quite chilly. Frost is predicted for tonight in the eastern part of the state, but it is so much higher there than in this part of the state it will doubtless be much cooler there.

Moran of the Lady Letty

By
FRANK NORRIS,
Author of "The Octopus," "The Pit," Etc.
Copyright, 1898, by
S. S. McClure Company

Moran had taken the lump of ambergris from out Kitchell's old hammock and had slung the hammock itself in the schooner's waist, and Charlie was made as comfortable as possible therein. They could do but little for him, however, and he was taken from time to time with spells of coughing that racked him with a dreadful agony. At length one moon just after Moran had taken the sun and had calculated that the Bertha was some eight miles to the southwest of San Diego, he was surprised to hear Wilbur calling him sharply. She ran to him and found him standing in the waist by Charlie's hammock.

"The Chinaman was dying and knew it. He was talking in a faint and feeble voice to Wilbur as she came up and was trying to explain to him that he was sorry he had deserted the schooner during the scare in the bay. 'Plenty much sally,' he said. 'China boy, him heap dadd of Feng shui. When Feng shui no like, we then must go chop chop. Plenty much sally I leave him schooner that night. Sally plenty-sally?'

"Of course we sally, Charlie," said Moran. "You weren't afraid when it came to fighting."

"I die plenty soon," said Charlie calmly. "You say you give me fifteen hundred dollars?"

"Yes, yes; that was our promise. What do you want done with it, Charlie?"

"I want plenty fine funeral in Chinatown in San Francisco. I want fine silver, fine gold, fine money. You give my money to Hop Sing, my cook, to take to Ming Yen temple. You sally Hop Sing?"

"Yes, yes."

"Tell him Hop Sing I want funeral—four pieces horse. You no forget horse?" he added apprehensively.

"No, I'll not forget the horses, Charlie. You shall have four."

"Want six pieces hand musclicans—China musclicans—four pieces gold. You no forget? Two pieces pistol, all dress me white-sally? You must buy me coffin yourself. Velly the coffin, hop much silver, all four pieces horse. You entchum firecracker—one, five, seven hundred firecracker; make me big noise. All least give me plenty tea and China brandy. Hop fine funeral."

"He took her in his arms, cost him fifteen hundred dollars. I be bury all same munda—him name Little Pete. You promise, sure?"

"I promise you, Charlie. You shall have a funeral finer than Little Pete's."

Charlie nodded his head contentedly, drawing a breath of satisfaction.

"Himely Hop Sing send me body back China," he closed his eyes and lay for a long time, worn out with the effort of speaking, as if asleep. Suddenly he opened his eyes wide. "You no forget horse?"

"Four horses, Charlie. I'll remember."

He dropped once more, only to rouse again at the end of a few minutes with:

"First chop coffin, plenty much silver," and again a little later and very feebly, "Six pieces—hand musclicans—China musclicans; four pieces—gold—four."

"I promise you, Charlie," said Wilbur.

"Now," answered Charlie—"now I die."

And the low caste Cantonese cooly, with all the dignity and calmness of a Cicero, composed himself for death.

An hour later Wilbur and Moran knew that he was dead. Yet, though they had never left the hammock, they could not have told at just what moment he died.

Later, on that same afternoon, Wilbur, from the crew's nest, saw the light-house on Point Loma and the huge, rambling bulk of the Coronado hotel spreading out and along the beach.

It was the outpost of civilization. They were getting back to the world again. Within an hour's ride of the hotel were San Diego, railroads, newspapers and policemen. Just off the hotel, however, Wilbur could discern the gleaming white hull of a United States man-of-war. With the glass he could make her out to be one of the monitors, the Monterey in all probability.

After advising with Moran it was decided to put in to land. The report as to the castaways could be made to the Monterey and Charlie's body forwarded to his home in San Francisco.

In two hours' time the schooner was well up, and Wilbur stood by Moran's side at the wheel watching and studying the familiar aspect of Coronado beach.

"It's a great winter resort," he told her. "I was down here with a party two years ago. Nothing has changed. You see that big sort of round wing, Moran, all full of windows? That's the dining room. And there's the bathhouse and the bowling alley. See the people on the beach and the girls in their blue skirts, and look up there by the veranda—let me take the glass—yes, there's a tallish one. Isn't it queer to get back to this sort of thing after Magdalena bay and the beach combers?"

Moran spun the wheel without reply and gave an order to Jim to ease off the fore-sheet.

CHAPTER XII.

THE winter season at the Hotel del Coronado had been unusually gay that year, and the young lady who wrote the society news in diary form for one of the San Francisco papers had held forth at much length upon the hotel's "splendid succession of festivities."

She had also noted that "prominent among the newest arrivals" had been Mr. Nat Hildewy of San Francisco, who had brought down from the city aboard his elegant and sumptuously fitted yacht Petrol a jolly party, composed largely of the season's debutantes. To be mentioned in the latter category was Miss Josie Herlick, whose lavender coming out ten at the beginning of the season was still a subject of comment among the gossip and all the rest of it.

The Petrol had been in the harbor but a few days, and on this evening a dance was given at the hotel in honor of her arrival. It was to be a cotillon, and Nat Hildewy was going to lead with Josie Herlick. There had been a coaching party to Tin Juana that day, and Miss Herlick had returned to the hotel only in time to dress. By 9:30 she emerged from the process—which had involved her mother, her younger sister, her maid and one of the hotel chambermaids—a dainty, trim, coarsened little body, all white, with satin and high piled hair. She carried a Marchal No. 1 rose, ordered by wire from Monterey, and about an hour later, when Hildewy gave the nod to the waiting maid and having her off to the best of a two-story, there was not a more graceful little figure upon the floor of the incomparable round ballroom of the Coronado hotel.

The cotillon was a great success. The guests and younger officers at the monitor, at that time moored off the hotel, attended in uniform, and enough of the members of what was known in San Francisco as the "dancing set" were present to give the affair the necessary eclat. Even Jerry Haight, who belonged more distinctly to the "country club set" and who had spent the early part of that winter shooting elk in Oregon, was among the ranks of the "rovers" who grouped themselves about the drifty doorways and endeavored to appear unconcerned each time Hildewy gave the signal for a "break."

The figures had gone round the hall once. The "first set" was out again, and as Hildewy guided Miss Herlick by the "rovers" she looked over the array of skirt fronts, searching for Jerry Haight.

"Do you see Mr. Haight?" she asked of Hildewy. "I wanted to favor him this break. I owe him two already, and he'll never forgive me if I overlook him now."

Success must be measured by the soul.

TEXT-BOOK CAMPAIGN QUOTATIONS

"We each and all owe a duty to the community and to the state. It is a positive duty and that is to aid in securing good laws and their faithful enforcement. We are not menaced by foreign foes. We have no fear of alien attack. We have nothing within to dread except the indifference of the intelligent citizen to the discharge of his civic obligations."—Hon. C. W. Fairbanks, at Freehold, N. J., June 27, 1903.

"I would like to impress upon every public man, upon every writer in the press, the fact that strength should go hand in hand with courtesy, with a profound regard in word and deed, only for the rights, but for the feelings of other nations."—President Roosevelt at Waukegan, Wis., April 3, 1903.

"It is foolish to pride ourselves on our progress and prosperity upon our commanding position in the international industrial world and at the same time have nothing but denunciation for the men to whose commanding position we in part owe this very progress and prosperity, this commanding position."—President Roosevelt at Cincinnati September 20, 1902.

"Whether the standard be low, or high, whether they be the standards of the hour's expediency or the standards of civilization's progress time can only tell; but that they shall be the better, the work of Theodore Roosevelt, as president of the United States, is more weighty than that of any one, of any score, of all his detractors, put together."—Hon. Elihu Root, at New York February 3, 1904.

"Our opponents ask the people to trust their present promises in consideration of the fact that they intend to treat their past promises as null and void."—President Roosevelt's speech accepting 1904 nomination.

"The present phenomenal prosperity has been won under a tariff made in accordance with certain fixed principles, the most important of which is an aroused determination to protect the interests of the American producer, business man, wage worker and farmer alike."—Roosevelt.

"The duties of peace are with us always, those of war are but occasional; and with a nation as with a man, the worthiness of life depends upon the way in which the everyday duties are done. The home duties are the vital duties."—President Roosevelt at Sherman June 15, 1903.

"There are many qualities which we need alike in private citizen and in public man, but three above all—three for the lack of which no brilliancy and no genius can atone—and those three are: courage, honesty and common sense."—President Roosevelt at Antietam, Md., September 17, 1903.

"When even a single schedule is considered, some interest will appear to be changed almost every schedule, the law, and then it comes to upsetting the schedule generally the effect upon the business interests of the country would be ruinous."—President Roosevelt at Minneapolis April 4, 1903.

"It is a good lesson for nations and individuals to learn never to hit if it can be helped, and then never hit softly. I think it is getting to be fairly understood that that is our foreign policy."—President Roosevelt at San Francisco May 13, 1903.

"It would be hard to find in modern times a better example of successful constructive statesmanship than the American representatives have given to the Philippine Islands."—President Roosevelt at Providence, R. I., August 23, 1902.

WERE OFFICERS IN CONFEDERATE ARMY

Washington.—Eighty-seven general officers of the army of the Confederate states of America are living, and they have mourned the deaths of 348 of their comrades who were of rank above that of colonel, sixty-four Confederate generals were killed on the field of battle and eleven others died from the effects of wounds received in battle. Two hundred and seventy-three died during or since the war of natural causes.

Herewith is presented a complete list of the general officers of the Confederate army who are still alive.

This list was prepared by General Marcus J. Wright, a brigadier general, Confederate states of America, and a prominent citizen of Tennessee. For 25 years General Wright has been engaged as the agent of the war department for the compilation of Confederate records. He is probably the best informed man as to the records and details of organization of the army of the lost cause now living. This list he prepared from a full examination of the records of the Richmond government. He has kept a record of the Confederate generals for over 25 years, and is convinced that this list is substantially correct. Certainly it is the most detailed ever prepared.

But three lieutenant generals are living. Simon Bolivar Buckner, of Kentucky; Stephen D. Lee, of Mississippi; and A. P. Stewart, of Tennessee, and not one of the six men who bore the full title of general.

Name and rank of Confederate general officers living, with their place of residence, where known, follow:

Alexander, Edward P., Georgia; brigadier general, Amundson, Georgetown, S. C.

Armstrong, Frank C., Tennessee; brigadier general, Washington, D. C.

Baker, Lawrence S., North Carolina; brigadier general, Suffolk, Va.

Bate, Wm. B., Tennessee; major general, Nashville, Tenn.

Battle, Oliver A., Alabama; brigadier general, Troy, Ala.

Bowles, Puckney D., Alabama; brigadier general.

Brent, Joseph S., Maryland; brigadier general, Baltimore, Md.

Buckner, Simon B., Kentucky; lieutenant general, Rio, Hart county, Ky.

Bulleck, Robert, Florida; brigadier general, Ocala, Fla.

REV. DODD TO WED.

Young Baptist Minister to Marry a Jackson Lady.

It is reported here that Rev. M. E. Dodd, the popular young Baptist minister of Fulton, will soon be united in marriage to Miss Emma Savage, of Jackson, Tenn., says the Fulton Leader. The wedding is to occur some time next month. The rumor is not confirmed, as Rev. Dodd is out of the city, but evidence is placed upon the report. Rev. Dodd is the popular pastor of the Baptist church of Fulton and will at an early date leave for Persia as a missionary.

Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo With Iron

Makes Fat, Strength, Blood, Bone and Muscle.

If you are tired, broken down, despondent, worn out, pale, losing flesh, have no energy, do not feel like rising in the morning for the day's work, you need a bottle of this wonderful medicine. Do you want good rich red blood? Do you want the bloom to come back to the cheek? Are you convalescing after having fever, pneumonia or measles? Then you ought to take a bottle of EMULSO-HYPO. Its medicinal food that reaches every tissue in the body and builds you up. Taken in a little wine its as pleasant as cough syrup.

Read what the editor of the Meridian Star of Mississippi, A. G. Davis, writes under date of April 8:

"My mother took the Emulso-Hypo and has been greatly benefited. She is in better health than she has been in years."

J. W. Russell, county clerk of Hickman county, Tenn., writes:

"My wife has used several bottles of Emulso-Hypo with Iron and has been wonderfully improved. I can conscientiously recommend it for all lung trouble."

Rev. G. T. Sullivan, presiding elder of the Memphis district, writes under date of Dec. 1, 1903:

"My daughter, whose system was very much run down, has been taking your Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, and has improved so much with one bottle I have no doubt by continuance she will be fully restored in her nerve forces. I am delighted with the results and shall continue her on it. Wishing you prosperity, I am, yours truly, G. T. SULLIVAN."
